

Family Partnership Plan

What matters most to the family? What are they hoping for their child? (From the program, educators, community?)

Best ways to connect with the family? (By phone, email, communication book, etc.)

What are some things you have learned about the family, their child(ren), culture and language?

What are some of the obstacles that the family has defined?

"Alone we can do so little; Together we can do so much." Helen Keller
